

TEXAS ASSOCIATION OF LIFE & HEALTH INSURERS

2008 Membership Dues Schedule

REGULAR MEMBERS:

Dues for Regular Members shall be fixed on a calendar year basis under the following formula:

Texas Premium Income per 2006 Annual Statement*	Annual Dues
(Schedule T - Texas Business)
Less than $500,000.....	$ 1,575
$500,000 to $999,999.....	2,100
$1,000,000 to $4,999,999.....	3,675
$5,000,000 to $19,999,999.....	5,250
$20,000,000 to $49,999,999.....	7,875
$50,000,000 to $99,999,999.....	11,025
$100,000,000 to $499,999,999.....	13,780
$500,000,000 and above.....	16,535

2008 Dues are derived from 2006 Annual Statement Schedule T, Line 44 (Texas premium only): The sum of 25% of Annuities and Other Deposits and 100% of Life & Accident & Health premium, including Texas premiums for all companies within a fleet, where applicable.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERS:

Dues for Associate Members are a flat $1,575 per year. Dues for new Associate Members are prorated from the month of joining.

Dues shall be payable, at the Member's option, in one of the following manners: (1) annually on February 1, or, (2) semi-annual installments on February 1 and October 1.

Note: The Omnibus Reconciliation Act of 1993 disallows tax deductions for lobbying expenses and for dues paid to tax exempt organizations that engage in lobbying. Therefore, a portion of the dues to the Texas Association of Life & Health Insurers is not deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense to the extent that TALHI engages in such lobbying activities. The projected non-deductible portion of dues for 2008 is 10.5%.

Please consider a donation to the Life Insurance Political Action Committee.

Recommended LIPAC Contribution is one-third (1/3) of your Dues amount.

LIPAC is the lobbying arm of TALHI. Your support is crucial to our work in keeping TALHI a visible and credible organization in the Legislature and at State agencies.

(Personal or PAC checks only; no corporate checks, please.)

Please direct any questions regarding TALHI dues or LIPAC donations to Mike Pollard at the address, phone/fax number or e-mail address listed below. Thank you.

TALHI FEI#74-6062228